

Krila 7

It is around 16h and you just boarded on a wooden gulet boat KRILA7...this is just the beginning of your escape to joy and pleasure.

After you settle in your cabins, a welcome drink will be served in an aft deck where captain will address all guests with few greeting words.

After welcome drinks, dinner prepared by excellent chef will be served...

Soon enough you will feel a scent of Adriatic extravagance herbs, spices and freshly prepared food! And a glass of wine that will make you feel overwhelmed with new sounds of waves, night birds and wooden sails. And above, a sky full of stars, thousands of them, of which many fall almost every minute.

Next morning, after breakfast (all meals are served on aft deck well protected from sun) a several hours cruising begins, between the islands, small fishing villages, inhabited bays...

We can stop wherever you fancy, either on the beach where one could have plenty of fun or in more isolated bays, where you could share the whole bay only with fishes that live there....

While you'll enjoy the sea, land and sun, a meal will be prepared for you, and a sound of the bell will bring you back onboard. After lunch you can really do whatever you wish, take a small motor boat and visit nearby village or town, continue to bath and enjoy water sports (snorkeling, fishing, water skiing) or just lay down and do nothing!

...Later in the afternoon, a new sound of bell will remind you that dinner is served.

Next morning, we start all over again, but with completely different itinerary and landscape, as we cruise, you'll discover new towns, villages, beautiful bays, so you choose new place to stop, new beach to swim or new places of interests to visit...

...Each day will be different, scenery and experiences will be new and you will learn all sorts of things about Croatia, as well as about yourself. Living on vessel for several days is very inspiring. Feeling of freedom guides you and connects you with rough nature...
