Destinations

Koh Samui

The island of Koh Samui offers an opportunity to explore some of the beaches and bays way off the tourist map in accessible by road and untouched by development. The five islands, Koh Taen and Koh mudsum to the south west of the island offer good snorkeling, fishing and beach exploration. Sunset cruises maximize the beauty of the area as the setting sun casts its warm glow over the islands of the national marine park.

Koh Phangan

The islands laid back nature has long drawn travelers to its unspoiled beaches and warm waters. Due to the topography of the island and its dense foliage many areas are relatively untouched by tourism. The majestic east coast of the island offers scenic bays such as Tong Noi Pan and Bottle Beach, with golden sands and waterfalls close by the area is the perfect place to relax or explore. The west coast offers some good snorkeling and fishing around Koh Ma, while only a few kilometers north lies the world class dive sites of Sail Rock and South West Pinnacles.

Anghong Marine Park

Covering over 100 km². and consisting of more than 80 Islands Anghong National Marine Park is a playground for the more adventurous. With breath taking views and a multitude of activities available from kayaking and snorkeling to beach relaxation and cave exploration the marine park offers guests not only the opportunity to enjoy the comfort of our vessel but the amazing beauty Thailand has to offer. Guest can go ashore to visit Koh Mae Koh the island with the mysterious inner sea, or kayak from Ao Kha to explore the coral fringed coastline of Koh Wua Talap. The northern islands of Koh Wao and Hin Yippon offer good diving and snorkeling. Fishing is restricted to the outer approaches of the park as it a designated marine reserve.

Koh Tao

Turtle Island offers some of the best Diving and Snorkeling in the Gulf of Thailand, with a wide variety of underwater pinnacles and bays to suit all levels of experience. Situated 70km north of Samui “La Madrina” is able to reach her shores in just over 1 hour giving you plenty time to enjoy this day excursion. Our experienced crew will be available to offer you assistance, guide you on your underwater journey or provide instruction for those you require tuition in a new activity. The bays of Nang Yuan, Ao Tanote and Sairee offer excellent lunch time stop over's. Fishing is permitted away from the dive sites and offers anglers some excellent tight line opportunities of catching Giant Trevally, Tuna, Dorado, Barracuda and Spanish Mackerel.

Koh Nang Yuan

Lying to the north west of Koh Tao is the island of Nang Yuan. Consisting of three islands connected by sand bars Nang Yuan is the perfect location to spend some time ashore. With calm, clear waters and abundant exotic marine life the location is great for families and those of us who like the feel of warm sand between the toes. A day excursion to either Koh Tao or Nang Yuan can be combined with a return stop at Koh Phangan or some great blue water angling on your return journey to Koh Samui.

Activities

Diving

The Samui archipelago has a variety of world class dive sites with abundant marine life and pristine coral. We are able to provide our guests with personalized itineraries that are suitable to their qualification level and experience. Under supervision of our PADI qualified instructor we are able to offer a dive guide service for up to 4 divers. For those who have not previously had the opportunity to experience the exhilaration of breathing underwater why not participate in an introduction dive, conducted in clear shallow water under direct supervision of our staff. For more information regarding our on board all inclusive diving service and the dive sites we visit please contact our charter manager.

Fishing

The rich waters of the Gulf of Thailand are a haven for many species of game fish, such as Tuna, Wahoo, Barracuda, Giant Trevally and King Mackerel. “La Madrina’s” state of the art navigation and depth sounding equipment along with a knowledgeable captain and an array of lures, poppers and fresh baits make even the weariest of fish easy prey. Using the latest fishing tackle and a variety of methods from trolling to ledgering, tight lines are almost a guarantee.

Snorkeling

The shallow bays and teaming reefs of the nearby destinations offer unique snorkeling experiences. Whether following a shoal of fusiliers or diving down to take a look at a spotted ray our crew will keep constant supervision of your time spent in the water. “La Madrina’s” tender allows our guests to be chauffeured to the reefs avoiding long surface swims and over exertion. For those who prefer a snorkeling guide, will be more than happy to assist and when you wish to return to “La Madrina” to relax or refresh we will be waiting to collect you.

Relaxation and exploration

Should you wish to spend some time ashore there are fantastic opportunities to discover deserted beaches to explore the surrounding area or simply, relax at your leisure. “La Madrina’s” tender enables our crew to access some of the more remote, idyllic locations allowing our guests to experience some truly unforgettable destinations. Our crew will ensure your comfort by providing shade, seating and beverages for the duration of stay.

Whilst on board

Oceans elite offer our guests a range of fully inclusive charters. Our choice of menus ranging from Mediterranean favorites to local delicacies, using quality ingredients freshly sourced and prepared onboard, aim to cater for all tastes.
