Koh Lanta, Krabi, Thailand

Thailand Tourism Award 2004
Best Tourist Accommodation
Southern Region

One of the pristine islands in Krabi, Koh Lanta Yai, is now a haven for Pimalai Resort & Spa. Nestled in a lush tropical forest, the resort combines all the right ingredients - subtle five star comfort, natural beauty, far from the crowds, with no traffic, no noise except the sound of the waves sliding in and out and slowly breaking onto a pristine sandy beach.

The spacious rooms, suites and villas feature contemporary Thai design with polished wooden floors, large balconies, king size beds, huge bathrooms and plush amenities. Superb facilities in natural tropical gardens include a variety of restaurants offering from al fresco casual dining right on the beach to formal classic Thai dining.

The dedication to nature and the elements of life are reflected in the resort very unique spa. Behind the spectacular hilltop resort lobby, set in a lush sloping valley, lies Pimalai Spa, where the winds bring flashes of light fragrances to the small walled treatment rooms, each named after a local flower.

The Spa aims at bringing back guest to nature; built in the shape of a village style, the pretty small straw roofed salas blend totally with the natural beauty of the jungle. Each has been designed with nature at heart, and fashioned with stones, native wood, bamboo, iron, ropes and ceramics.

The seven thatched-roof salas equipped with double or single beds are mainly used for aromatherapy massages, body wraps or body scrub treatments. An imposing open-air pavilion standing at the bottom of the small valley is home to the Thai traditional massage whilst just across, the outdoor Jacuzzi with the adjacent herbal sauna just awaits for you to dip in, refresh and cleanse your body before your selected treatment.

Fat orange and gold carp swim lazily through the green pool of water softly burbling beneath the wooden walkways and platforms that make up the spa. Lying on the mattress on an elevated platform with the afternoon breeze softly playing through the tropical foliage, the Thai masseuse gives your body the pummeling of your life: certainly worth traveling a third of the way round the world for.
