Koh Lanta, Krabi, Thailand

Thailand Tourism Award 2004
Best Tourist Accommodation
Southern Region

Pimalai Resort & Spa, which opened on November 1st, 2001, is a unique 5 ***** property existing on Koh Lanta, Krabi, Thailand. The resort was awarded in 2004 the prestigious “Kinnari Trophy/ Excellence - Best Tourism Accommodation - Southern region, by the Tourism Authority of Thailand.

Koh Lanta is a very quiet and natural destination with its own charm. The island is still largely unspoiled, offers some beautiful beaches, superb low and green mountain backdrops where wildlife is very well present and is at very short distances of some of the highly rated diving spots in Thailand.

Pimalai Resort & Spa is built on a splendid 100 acres of hilly land of lush tropical forest with direct access to a 900 meters pristine sandy beach. A great emphasis has been placed by the architects to preserve the environment when designing the low rise southern style buildings and this result today in a resort complementing the setting rather than competing with it.

The property is located approximately 1h50 to 2hrs from Krabi International Airport and is reached by the resort’s private minibus and cruising boat. The accommodation of restful low-density and of a southern style design, are nestled in this magnificent lush tropical forest, overlooking Kantieng bay.

In December 2005, was initiated the opening of new Pool Villas. The elegantly appointed one, two and three bedrooms pool villas are located on a hillside, some 60 meters above sea level and provide breathtaking views of the majestic Andaman sea and the surrounding lush tropical vegetation.

Today the resort’s facilities consist of, a combined 121 Deluxe Rooms, Pavilion Suites, Beach Villas and Pool Villas, all with a contemporary Thai style design, 5 restaurants, 4 bars, two superb infinity-edge freshwater swimming pools, a PADI dive center, a large fitness room with high quality fitness equipment, two library lounges offering free high speed internet access, shops and full conference facilities sitting up to 160 persons.

To enhance this ultimate retreat experience, the resort proposes 5 different dining alternatives for guest to choose from and an award winning wine cellar.

The resort at last offers a wide range of activities - including canoeing, sailing, scuba diving (Nov – Apr), bicycling, trekking, tennis courts (from July 2007), Thai cooking classes, wedding ceremonies - for those looking for a more active focused holidays but also offers the perfect setting for guest who are just looking for a romantic getaway. Guest can also revitalize in the wonderful Pimalai Spa that offers a host of Oriental therapeutic treatments using mainly Thai herbal and natural products.
