

Warm greetings from the Touch of Spice team.

It's been another great month. Jacqui has just returned from New York where she attended the prestigious Conde Nast Travel Awards. It was a great event and we were all proud with the profile Touch of Spice had with key agents from the event. She is on the road again next month visiting agents in the UK and attending ILTM in Europe.

New Zealand is basking in a wonderful spring and we are all counting down to Christmas. If you haven't already booked your holiday – let us help. Contact our Reservations and Concierge team and we can help arrange your accommodation throughout New Zealand, do the grocery shopping, dress the perfect Christmas Tree, find the perfect Christmas present and of course assist Father Christmas with any stocking requirements for the little people (or big people)! - info@touchofspice.co.nz

Look out for next month's newsletter when we will introduce you to our favourite Christmas Cocktail (we have put a lot of research into this!) and our private chef will share a fabulous Christmas recipe with you.

Exciting things for Touch of Spice in October were:
