

KASBAH TAMADOT

SIR RICHARD BRANSON'S MOROCCAN RETREAT

QUICK FACT SHEET

Marhba – Welcome

Sir Richard Branson's Moroccan retreat, Kasbah Tamadot, is a 24 room magical walled building and divine hideaway situated in the spectacular Atlas Mountains, approximately 45 minutes drive from Marrakech Airport. The award-winning Kasbah Tamadot, bought by Sir Richard Branson in 1998 during one of his famous ballooning expeditions, employs local Berber staff from the surrounding villages, giving guests a sense of staying in a Moroccan home rather than a hotel.

Guest rooms

Kasbah Tamadot has 24 rooms and suites, consisting of:

- 15 beautiful rooms and suites in the Main Building – each with its own Berber name that tells you something about them
- One Master Suite, located a few minutes walk away at the end of the garden, which has three rooms including the Deluxe Pool Suite, and is generally hired privately as a three bedroom cottage
- Six new Berber Tented Suites with private plunge pools, launched in October 2008, perched on the hillside overlooking the pretty valley below and offering stunning views of the Atlas

Each of the 24 rooms and suites at Kasbah Tamadot have been individually decorated to reflect the beautiful architecture of the building and infuse the traditional charm of Moroccan design with contemporary elements. All rooms and suites feature antiques from all over the world.

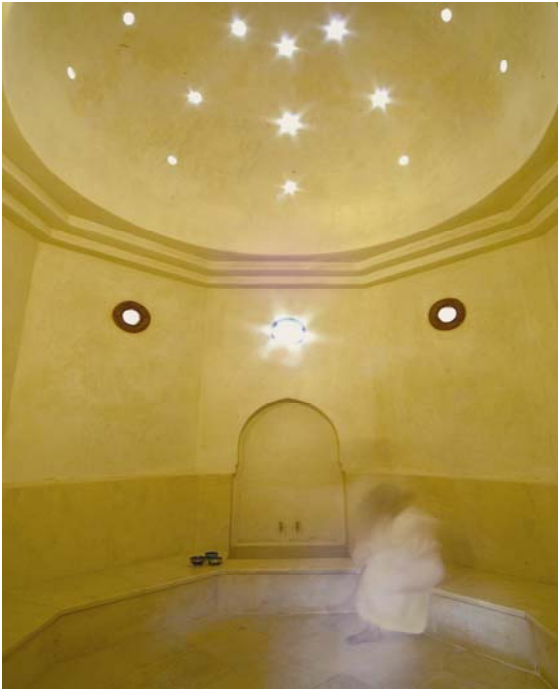

Shared Spaces

The extensive grounds are filled with staircases, courtyards and gardens. On the ground level are two internal courtyards, an indoor pool, the Asounfou spa, a traditional Moroccan Hammam and access to the outdoor pool and the Master Suite. A main staircase leads up to a traditional Moroccan painted courtyard that surrounds a deep blue reflecting pool on the first floor. Opening from here are a series of bedrooms, a guest salon with open fire and library and the Kanoun restaurant. From our outdoor pool you can meander along pretty garden paths to our tennis courts. The rooftop is complete with breathtaking views and a seating area where drinks can be served.

Outdoors

The grounds have been planted with a huge variety of evergreen and flowering plants. Within the stepped landscape is the pool complex; an upper terrace is surrounded by Greek columns and features a bar, while a grand staircase leads down to the infinity pool, reflecting the sky and affording spectacular views to the Atlas Mountains and the valley below. Surrounding the pool edge are loungers along with chairs and tables for relaxation throughout the day. Beyond the pool is the path that leads to the tennis courts and the Berber Tented Suites.

The Asounfou Spa

Asounfou, the Berber word for relaxation, describes the Kasbah Tamadot beauty treatment rooms perfectly. The Kasbah Tamadot Spa incorporates the indoor pool, two treatment rooms, a sauna and a traditional Moroccan Hamman. Guests can indulge in a wonderful range of treatments using exclusive products, including Yon Ka and L'Orientaliste. If the weather permits, there is an outdoor treatment room set up in the grounds, perfect for couples who like a simultaneous massage. The view over the mountains is fantastic!
